

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	11
Do or Die at the Projector	12
Al Gore's "Inconvenient Truth"	13
About this Book	15
Communicating into the Fast Track	16
Make Yourself Understood	17
Logic is the Key	19
Structure First	20
Training is Everything	22
From One Practitioner to Another	23
The Foundations of Structured Communication	27
Triangology	31
1. UNDERSTANDING THE PYRAMID — GIVE YOUR ARGUMENTS A SOLID FOUNDATION	37
Pyramids — The Most Stable Structures in the World	38
Escalate to the Most Essential	39
Miss Marple versus Columbo	40
The "Emergency Call Principle"	45
Separating the Thinking and Writing Processes	46
Summary	49
2. DETERMINING WHAT IS REQUIRED — IDENTIFY THE KEY QUESTION	51
Your Thoughts Need Space	52

A Key Question is Fundamental	53
The Key Question is Rooted in the Baseline Scenario	55
The Key Question is also Formed in Part by Possible Problems and Challenges	56
Formulating the Key Question	57
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	59
Summary	61
3. STRUCTURING THE TASK — EXPLORE THE TOPIC	63
Gain Insight by Asking Questions	64
Master any Topic Using a Structured Question Tree	66
Structuring Topics: Top-Down or Bottom-Up?	68
A Perfect Question Tree is Characterized by a “Golden Descent”	70
The MECE Principle Ensures that the Logic is Watertight	72
Question Trees are an Ideal Tool for Project Planning	74
Gathering Data and Facts for Answers for the Question Tree	76
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	77
Summary	79
4. ADDRESSEE ANALYSIS — THINK YOURSELF INTO YOUR OBJECTIVES AND TARGET GROUPS	81
Time is the Most Valuable Commodity	82
Success Depends on the Approach Taken	83
Analysis of the Main Targets of Your Message	85
A Typical Communication Error	86
Knowledge (of the Target Group) is Power	88
Addressee Analysis – Who will be in the Room?	89
The Problem of the Mixed Group	92
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	93
Summary	95

5. DEFINING THE KEY MESSAGE — FORMULATE YOUR CENTRAL STATEMENT	97
The Necessity of the Key Message	98
“Make Your Point”	99
Good Key Messages “Stick”	101
The “SUCCES” Principle	103
Question-Answer Dialog	105
The “Elevator Pitch” and the “Stickiness Test”	106
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	107
Summary	109
6. BUILDING THE PYRAMID — DEVELOP ARGUMENTS FOR YOUR KEY MESSAGE	111
The Logical Thread	112
The Storyline — The Structural Design	113
The Introduction	115
The Main Body	117
The Logical Group	118
The Logical Chain	122
Logical Group versus Logical Chain	126
Checking the Quality of Your Statements	128
Coming to an End	130
The Pyramid	131
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	133
Summary	135
7. THE GRAPHIC DESIGN OF PRESENTATIONS – GIVE YOUR IDEAS A FACE	137
The Graphic Design Tightrope between Standards and Creativity	138
[1] Simplicity, Conciseness, and Relevance	139
[2] Storyboard	143

[3] Corporate Standards	146
[4] Five Golden Rules	166
[5] Creativity	178
[6] Language	191
Creativity For All: Keep Things in Check	194
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	195
Summary	199
8. CREATING SLIDES — USE EXPERIENCE, TRICKS, AND TECHNOLOGY	201
You’re Almost There	202
Case Study: Harry’s Gourmet	203
PowerPoint Still Leads the Pack	215
Professional PowerPoint	218
Schedule Sufficient Time	220
Reach for Established Tools	221
Supporting Tools	223
Summary	225
CLOSING REMARKS	227
Try It, Success will Prove You Right	228
The Authors	230
Reference List	232